

- Personal Considerations - Are there other things that I would like to do more.
- Political Considerations - Do I have the right not to run.
- If I stay in office what should I expect?
 - a) declining ^{general} popularity. The "thrill" and newness is gone. I'm just a struggling politician running a reasonably good foot. Today is not 4 years ago.
 - b) expense. antagonism. City employees, women groups, poor people, communists, business community.
 - c) lack of excitement ~~and~~ & turnover within the Prog. Coal. & the Admin. We have been very cohesive. It may break.
 - 1) personal antagonisms & jealousies.
 - 2) people cannot continue to work as hard. Run out.
 - 3) Split over relationship to the Dem. Party. Deep down, a # of our people would like the position of Caddy & the O. P.
 - d) Do we become a bureaucratic "good foot"?
 - e) Are our ideas? Do our ideas represent the needs of Burlington?
 - f) The NP is hard sold.
 - g) We are not coming up with candidacies for office.
 - h) We are not relating well to workers & poor people.
 - i) relating to the media.
 - j) - Bond issue - big money!
 - k) Voluntary effort - Poor.
